Interview A:

1. With your partner, list as many different types of movies as you can. Ex. horror

2. Ask your partner what type of movies he / she prefers and why.

3. Match the adjectives below with your partner's list. Write an example for each.

	Synonym	Example of a movie	Rank
amusing	enjoyable	You've Got Mail
shocking
thrilling
boring
funny
emotional scary
disgusting
enthralling
terrifying

4. Now, rank the adjectives from 1-10 for reasons your partner watches a movie.

5. Ask your partner how he / she likes to feel when leaving the cinema. Use –ed forms of the adjectives where possible.

   Ex. shocked. I like to be shocked by movies. They have to be surprising or I feel bored.

6. What are the last 2 movies that your partner saw? Ask questions to complete the form below.

   a. Movie: _____ - Type: _____

      Plot:

      Adjectives to describe the movie:
      Feelings while / after watching the movie:

b. Movie: _____ - Type: _____

Plot:

Adjectives to describe the movie:
Feelings while / after watching the movie:

Interview B:

7. With your partner, list as many different types of movies as you can. Ex. horror

8. Ask your partner what type of movies he / she prefers and why.

9. Match the adjectives below with your partner's list. Write an example for each.

	Synonym	Example of a movie	Rank
enjoyable	amusing	You've Got Mail dull frightening captivating
surprising humorous
gross
petrifying
exciting
moving

10. Now, rank the adjectives from 1-10 for reasons your partner watches a movie.

11. Ask your partner how he / she likes to feel when leaving the cinema. Use –ed forms of the adjectives where possible.

    Ex. shocked. I like to be shocked by movies. They have to be surprising or I feel bored.

12. What are the last 2 movies that your partner saw? Ask questions to complete the form below.

    c. Movie: _____ - Type: _____

    Plot:

    Adjectives to describe the movie:
    Feelings while / after watching the movie:

d. Movie: _____ - Type: _____

Plot:

Adjectives to describe the movie:
Feelings while / after watching the movie: